

A GUIDE TO YOUR LICENSE TO COPY - TERTIARY

A CLNZ print license allows staff to copy and scan printed material to share with students, from an original hardcopy.

Staff can distribute in hardcopy or electronically in formats that include:

- CD/DVD
- Electronic whiteboard
- Email
- Intranet - via a password protected system (not a publically accessible website)

Note: Source details must be included.

How much can be copied?

- Multiple copies of up to 10% or a chapter from a book (whichever is greater)
- Up to 15 pages of a single work contained in a collection or anthology of works (e.g. short stories and poems)
- A complete article from a periodical or journal (more if it is on the same subject)
- A complete work, if the work is out of print and unavailable for purchase, with permission from CLNZ

What can be copied?

- Books / Text books
- Newspapers
- Periodicals / Journals
- Artistic works (such as illustrations) as published in a book

What is not covered by the license?

- Material downloaded from the internet
- Printed sheet music (not contained within a book)
- House journals (e.g. employees publications)
- Theses; dissertations and student papers
- Stand alone artwork
- Loose maps and charts
- Resources where permission to copy has already been granted by the publisher

Please refer to the Copyright Act when making multiple copies or gain permission from the publisher directly.
